3. Ticket terms and conditions

- 3.1. The holder of a valid Coach-Fly or Rail-Fly ticket shall be entitled to travel on the Carrier's air services and the services of the Coach or Rail Operators, as stated on the Coach-Fly or Rail-Fly ticket and subject to terms/restrictions/conditions printed on the ticket.
- 3.2. You must present to the Coach or Rail Operator a valid paper ticket for each sector of your carriage on a Coach or Rail Operator's services or, in the case of travel on Heathrow Express rail services, an electronic copy of a valid ticket. If you fail to present your ticket or your ticket as presented is damaged or if it has been altered otherwise than by Carrier or our appointed travel agent, the Coach or Rail Operator will be entitled to refuse carriage or require you to purchase a replacement coach or rail ticket on its usual conditions of sale and carriage. For the avoidance of doubt, National Express or

First Great Western shall not accept electronic copies of tickets on its services and you must therefore print a paper copy of your National Express or First Great Western ticket for travel on National Express or First Great Western rail services respectively.

- 3.3. Rail-Fly or Coach-Fly Tickets which include a booking for flexible travel on the services of a Rail or Coach Operator shall remain valid for travel on the services of that Rail Operator or Coach Operator for a period of one (1) year following issue of the Rail-Fly or Coach-Fly ticket. All other bookings for non-flexible rail travel on a Rail or Coach Operator's service shall be valid only on the date and for the service specified on the Coach-Fly or Rail-Fly ticket.
- 3.4. You are solely responsible for ensuring that you arrive at the appropriate railway or coach station in time for boarding the coach/rail service(s) comprised in your Coach-Fly or Rail-Fly ticket. Neither we nor the Coach or Rail Operators will be liable for any costs or expenses you may incur as a result of your failure to do so.
- 3.5. Without prejudice to clause 3.4, if your Coach-Fly or Rail-Fly ticket entitles you to flexible coach or rail travel on a National Express Coach or First Great Western service to London Heathrow Coach Station or London Paddington respectively. You must plan your coach or rail travel on National Express or First Great Western services to ensure your arrival at London Heathrow Coach Station or London Paddington railway station at least 2 hours and 30 minutes prior to your scheduled time of departure on the Carrier's air services from London Heathrow Airport. If you fail to comply with this minimum connection time and, as a consequence, you arrive at London Heathrow Airport too late to board the flight comprised in your Rail-Fly ticket, we shall have no liability to you in respect of any losses and expenses you incur as a result.

4. Baggage

- 4.1. The passenger shall be solely responsible for the safe-keeping and security of your baggage during carriage on a Coach or Rail Operator's services. The Carrier shall not be liable for any loss of or damage to your baggage during carriage on a Coach or Rail Operator's services.
- 4.2. Neither the Carrier nor any Coach or Rail Operator shall offer any through check-in of baggage between air and coach or rail services.
- 4.3. You should be aware that items may be allowed in baggage on a Coach or Rail Operator's services which are not allowed on Carrier's services. You must ensure that you comply with all baggage restrictions and requirements applicable to your carriage by air. If you fail to comply with such restrictions and requirements, Carrier shall be entitled to refuse to carry your baggage and will not be liable to you for loss or expense due to such failure.
